VERSE 1

G C
The city was tall and the city was loud,
G Am
A million bunnies, but I felt like a cloud
D G C
Just driftin' along with no place to be,
G D
Past a hundred locked doors that were never for me.

VERSE 2

D G C
Then I rolled into town with my guitar and a grin,
G Am
And the first bunny I met threw a wave "come on in!"
D G C
No nameplate, no number, just a "howdy there, friend,"
G D
And somethin' in my chest started healin' again.

PRE-CHORUS

G

C
Funny how a stranger
G
Can feel like home,
Am7
Funny how you quit feelin'
C D
So alone

CHORUS

G C D
Oh, there's a small town sky,
D Em C G
Open clear and wide and kind,
G C
Where every bunny waves hello
D C D G
And no bunny's left behind.
G C D
I was lost in the crowd,
D Em C G
But I found my place at last
G Am7 G Csus2
Somewhere warm and waitin'
C D
Under a small town sky.

TURNAROUND

| G |

VERSE 3

G C
Met a fella in flannel with a handshake firm,
G Am7
Said "come back any time, son, there's plenty to learn."
D G C
A baker slid me cake and wouldn't take a dime
G D
"Welcome to the Junction, now you take your sweet time."

VERSE 4

G C
I'm a long way from the bunny that I used to be,
G Am7
Eyes down to the ground, heart locked up with a key.
D G C
But kindness has a way of openin' the door,
G
And I don't feel like a stranger anymore.

PRE-CHORUS

C
Funny how a kind word
G
Can turn a day,
Am7
Funny how the heavy
C D
Just melts away

CHORUS

G C D
Oh, there's a small town sky,
D Em C G
Open clear and wide and kind,
G C D
Where every bunny waves hello
Dsus4 D C D G
And no bunny's left behind.
C D G
G C D
I was lost in the crowd,
Dsus4 D Em C G
But I found my place at last
G Am G C
Somewhere warm and waitin'
C D G
Under a small town sky.

BRIDGE

C D
Maybe I was never meant for crowded streets and noise,
D G Em7
Maybe I was built for porch-light evenings, simple joys
Em7 Am7 Bm7
For a town that learns your name before you even say it,
C D
And when you've got a song to sing, they stop and let you play it.

FINAL CHORUS

G C D
So I'll set my worries down and let the evening roll on by,
G Em7 Cmaj7 D Em
With a brand-new tune and an old guitar
Em Am7 D
Under a small town sky.
